House Bill No. 7174

INTRODUCED BY
REP. ALFRED VARGAS

AN ACT
PROHIBITING THE ACTIVE USE AND DISPLAY OF COMMERCIAL BILLBOARDS DURING TYPHOONS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine Atmospheric, Geophysical and Astronomical Services Administration (PAGASA) records an average of 20 tropical cyclones that enter the country's area of responsibility every year. The damages of typhoons are no stranger to the public. In recent years, the likes of Typhoon Yolanda in 2013, Typhoon Pablo in 2012, and Typhoon Glenda in 2014 have cost billions of pesos and are recorded as the top three most destructive typhoons in the country.

Meanwhile, the Philippine Center for Investigative Journalism (PCIJ) in 2005 has published a report on the health and environmental hazards brought about by the rising number of commercial billboards in the metro. The continued use of billboards during typhoons pose a threat to general public safety and are thus necessary to be regulated and mitigated.

This bill seeks to regulate the use of billboards during typhoons to mitigate environmental and safety hazards of the use thereof.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
