AN ACT

EXPLANATORY NOTE:

This bill seeks to remove the distinction between children born within wedlock and children born out of wedlock, formally known as legitimate and illegitimate children, as provided under Republic Act No. 389, as amended, Executive Order No. 209, s. 1987, as amended, and other pertinent laws of the land.

Under our existing laws, illegitimate children have lesser rights compared to legitimate children. In terms of inheritance, for instance, the illegitimate child is only entitled to one one-half of the inheritance of a legitimate child. This bill seeks to address such inequality before the law, ensuring that all their rights are equally protected.

Further, it provides for the rights of children conceived through traditional or gestational altruistic surrogacy, an area that is not clearly regulated and this bill seeks to remedy that lack of clarity.
As a signatory of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the Philippine government is obligated to ensure that the best interests of the child must be the primary consideration in all actions concerning their welfare and future.

Hence, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
