THE HONORABLE SPEAKER
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
QUEZON CITY
AN ACT
CREATING A CONGRESSIONAL OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION TO REVIEW AND ASSESS THE STATE OF PHILIPPINE EDUCATION, AND RECOMMEND POLICY REFORMS TO HARMONIZE AND ENHANCE THE POLICIES AND PROGRAMS OF PHILIPPINE BASIC, TECHNICAL-VOCATIONAL, AND HIGHER EDUCATION

SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Congressional Oversight Committee on Education Act”.

SEC. 2. Declaration of Policy. – It is the declared policy of the State to protect and promote the right of all citizens to quality, accessible, adequate and relevant education at all levels. The State likewise adheres to the constitutional mandate of providing the highest budgetary allocation to education as well as the important and crucial roles of education, science and technology, arts, culture, and sports to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress, and promote total human liberation and development.

To this end, the State underscores the need to strengthen the policies and programs of the three foci of the Philippine educational system and other education-related manpower development bodies, including the need of these government institutions to collaborate and develop an education system that is designed for complementarity and synergy of programs aimed at achieving the goals of efficiency and effectiveness in education service delivery.

Further, the State underscores the crucial role of information and communications technology in the advent of the digital age and their transformational effect in the field of education, especially in enhancing the capability of educators to innovate by way of collaboration, promoting digital literacy, developing critical thinking, problem-solving and other related core competencies so that they become more effective and efficient in delivering quality, accessible, adequate and relevant education to all learners that are likewise at par with global standards.

SEC. 3. Objectives. – This Act shall be guided by the following objectives:

a) To address existing problems, challenges, and issues faced by the Philippine educational system, while taking into consideration the country’s development goals and the continuing demand for adjustments spurred by changing international standards;

b) To harmonize the policies and programs of the three foci of the Philippine educational system, namely, the Department of Education (DepEd), the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), and the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA), including those of the other manpower development bodies;

c) To institutionalize educational reforms necessary to meet the new challenges to education, such as the implementation of blended learning for basic education and flexible learning for higher education and postsecondary technical-vocational education and training as part of the adjustments and responses to the global pandemic, and the advent of the Fourth Industrial Revolution characterized, among others, by the rapid development of information technologies such as artificial intelligence, blockchain data sharing, quantum computing, and the so-called internet of things analytics;

d) To reinforce government investments on education to ensure funding for the continuing increase in student population;

e) To institute a shift in the country’s educational system, away from content-centric learning and towards skills- and outcome-based learning, to encourage learners to become more flexible, critical, creative, and morally upright and provide those already in the workforce with opportunities to train and acquire new and relevant skills in order to prepare them for the fast-changing educational paradigms across the globe, with the end-goal of empowering students across all ages to become lifelong learners;

f) To accelerate the adoption and use of trends in sectoral quality and performance evaluation, new ways of teaching and learning, of assessing and certifying knowledge and skills, of instituting improvements in education governance, and of new architectural and engineering designs for schools and auxiliary facilities;

h) To support the goal of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) Economic Community for the free movement of skilled labor in the engineering, nursing, architecture, surveying, dentistry, medicine, accounting, and tourism professions, hence, making it imperative that Filipino professionals in these fields be consistently competitive; and

SEC. 4. Creation. – There is hereby created a Congressional Oversight Committee (COC) on Education which shall undertake a national review, assessment, and harmonization of the performance of the bodies created to take charge of basic education, higher education, and manpower development programs of the country as well as of the other bodies and agencies that have initiated actions on cross-cutting recommendations that are not within the distinct purview of the DepEd, TESDA, and CHED such as the Civil Service Commission (CSC), Professional Regulation Commission (PRC), Department of Budget and Management, Department of Finance, Department of Labor and Employment, Department of the Interior and Local Government, Department of Information and Communications Technology, and Department of Agriculture’s Agricultural Training Institute, among others.

b) Approve the work plan for the conduct of the national review, assessment and harmonization tasks;

c) Hold hearings, receive testimonies, reports and expert advice on the status of the Philippine education sector, exhaust available options to identify problems and consolidate coherent courses of action as remedies;

d) Summon by subpoena any public official or private citizen to testify before it, or require by subpoena duces tecum to produce before it such records, reports or other documents as may be necessary in the performance of its functions;

e) Secure from any department, bureau, office or instrumentality of the government such assistance as may be needed, including technical information, preparation and production of reports and the submission of recommendations or plans as it may require;

f) Collaborate with emerging industries and services for the sharing of important information relative to their practices on specialized training or apprenticeship programs in line with Republic Act No. 7686, or the “Dual Training System Act of 1994”, to prepare the learners and the newly-hired workforce to the demands of the 21st century skills;

g) Report to Congress its accomplishments on a periodic basis, its findings and recommendations on actions to be taken by Congress and the departments concerned with education and manpower development;

h) Promulgate the rules and regulations implementing the provisions of this Act;

i) Formulate additional legislation, if needed, to further the goals and objectives of this Act; and

j) Generally, to exercise all the powers necessary to attain the purposes for which it is created.

SEC. 7. Standing Committees. – The members of the COC on Education may establish standing committees from among its members and use resource persons from the public and private sectors as may be needed. The members of the standing committees shall receive no compensation.

SEC. 8. Sunset Clause. – The COC on Education shall serve for a period of three (3) years. It shall organize itself and commence its mandate upon the effectivity of this Act. It shall accomplish its mandate within three (3) years from the date of its organization.

To fully accomplish their administrative and other related functions in accordance with the goals and objectives of this Act, the Technical Secretariat shall continue to exist and shall function for another two (2) years after the termination of the three-year term of the COC on Education.

SEC. 9. Repealing Clause. – All laws, decrees, orders and rules and regulations contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed or amended accordingly.

SEC. 10. Effectivity. – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in the Official Gazette or in a newspaper of general circulation.

Approved,
