Chapter II

THE NATIONAL FLAG

SEC. 4. Design of the National Flag. – The flag of the Philippines shall be blue, white and red with an eight-rayed golden-yellow sun and three five-pointed stars, as consecrated and honored by the people.

The flag shall have the following proportions: The width of the flag, one (1); the length of the flag, two (2); and the sides of the white triangle, one (1).

The technical specifications of the flag shall be as follows: The blue color shall bear Cable no. 80173; the white color, Cable no. 80001; the red color, Cable no. 80108; and the golden yellow, Cable no. 80068.

SEC. 5. Standards for Flag Requisition. – In order to establish a criteria that shall be observed in the fabrication of the national flag, and to guarantee its durability, the following standards and procedures shall be observed:

(a) All requisitions for the purchase of the Philippine flag must be based on strict compliance with the design, color and craftsmanship and material specifications and performance standards as set by the government;

(b) All submitted samples of flags by accredited suppliers offered for purchase for government use shall be evaluated as to design, color and craftsmanship and material specifications and performance standards by the National Historical Commission of the Philippines (NHCP), through its Heraldy Section, which shall stamp its approval or disapproval on the canvas reinforcement of the flag sample submitted. The samples shall be sent to the NHCP by the requisitioning office, not by the flag supplier; and

(c) The Philippine Textile Research Institute (PTRI) of the Department of Science and Technology (DOST) shall evaluate the quality of material of all flag samples and certify whether the fabric for the blue, white, red and golden yellow colors, including the canvas submitted, conform to government requirement as to the quality of material. The samples shall be sent annually to the PTRI by the manufacturer. The laboratory test results shall be submitted by the said office to the NHCP.
SEC. 6. Flag Purchase Inspection. – All deliveries of the flags requisitioned by the government shall be inspected by the requisitioning agency’s internal inspector using the flag stamped approved by the NHCP as reference.

In carrying out the above responsibilities, the NHCP and the DOST shall prepare guidelines to be approved by all the parties concerned.

SEC. 7. Strict Compliance with Requirements. – All government agencies and instrumentalities shall ensure that the requirements under this Act with respect to the standards, requisitions and delivery of the flag are strictly complied with.

SEC. 8. Hoisting and Display of the National Flag. – The flag shall be hoisted or displayed in all public buildings, official residences, public plazas, and institutions of learning every weekday from Monday to Friday throughout the year.

SEC. 9. Where Flag Should be Permanently Displayed. – The flag shall be permanently hoisted, day and night throughout the year, in front of the following:

(a) Malacañang Palace;
(b) Senate of the Philippines building;
(c) House of Representatives building;
(d) Supreme Court building;
(e) Rizal Monument in Rizal Park, City of Manila;

(s) Santa Barbara Plaza in Santa Barbara, Iloilo;
(t) All international ports of entry; and
(u) All other places as may be designated and marked by the NHCP.

At the above-stated places, the flag shall be properly illuminated at night.

SEC. 10. Display of Flag in Private Buildings and Residences. – The flag shall also be displayed in private buildings and residences or raised on flagpoles in front of said buildings during flag days, as provided for in Section 28 of this Act.

The flag may also be displayed throughout the year in private buildings or offices or raised on flagpoles in front of private buildings: Provided, That the occupants of the said building may observe flag-raising ceremonies in accordance with the implementing rules and regulations to be issued by the NHCP.

SEC. 11. Display of Flag on Seafaring Vessels. – The flag shall be flown on all seafaring vessels of Philippine registry.

On board seafaring vessels, the flag shall be displayed on the flag-staff at the stern when the ship is at anchor. The flag shall be hoisted to the gaff at the aftermast when the ship is at sea.

SEC. 12. The Blue, Red and White Fields of the Flag. – In time of peace, the blue field of the flag shall be on top when the flag is hoisted. In a hanging position, the white field shall be on top, and the blue field shall be to the right, which is to the left of the observer.

Conversely, in time of war, the red field should be on top when the flag is hoisted. In a hanging position, the white field shall be on top, and the red field shall be to the right, which is to the left of the observer.

SEC. 13. Flagpole in the Open Field. – If planted on the ground, the flagpole shall be at a prominent place and shall be of such height as would give the flag the prominence in relation to the buildings in the vicinity. The flagpole staff must be straight and slightly tapered at the top.

If attached to a building, the flagpole shall be anchored on a sill projecting at an angle upward.

If on a stage or platform, the flag shall be at the left side of the observer (facing the stage) and in an office, must be placed on the left side when viewed by the observer upon entrance thereto the office.

SEC. 14. The Philippine Flag when Flown with another Flag. – When the Philippine flag is flown with another national flag, both must be flown on separate staffs of the same height and shall be of equal size. The Philippine flag shall be placed to the left of the observer, hoisted first, and lowered last.

If the other flag is not a national flag, it may be flown during special occasions in the same halyard as the Philippine flag but below the latter and it cannot be of greater size than the Philippine flag.

SEC. 15. The Philippine Flag when Displayed with another Flag. – When displayed with another flag, the Philippine flag shall be placed to the right of the other flag (left of the observer). If there is a line of other flags, the Philippine flag shall be placed at the leftmost of the observer.

When carried in a parade with flags which are not national flags, the Philippine flag shall be in front and at the center of the line.

Additional protocol for the display of the Philippine flag shall be contained in the implementing rules and regulations to be issued by the NHCP.
SEC. 16. Proper Use, Disposal and Replacement of Worn-Out Flag. – The flag shall be replaced immediately by the concerned agency, institution or office when it begins to show signs of wear and tear.

A flag that is worn out through wear and tear shall not be thrown away. It shall be turned over to the appropriate Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts Local Council Committee in the nearest school which shall, in turn, conduct proper disposal rites to avoid misuse or desecration of the worn-out flag.

The manner of disposal of the worn-out flag shall be in accordance with the rules to be issued by the NHCP.

SEC. 17. Appropriate Time for Flag Raising and Lowering. – The flag shall be raised at sunrise and lowered at sunset. It shall be on the mast at the start of official office hours and shall remain flying throughout the day.

SEC. 18. Manner of Displaying the Flag. – The flag may be displayed only in the following ways:

(a) Inside or outside a building or on stationary or movable flagpoles. If the flag is displayed indoors on a flagpole, it shall be placed to the left of the observer as one enters the room;

(b) From the top of a flagpole, which shall be at a prominent place or a commanding position in relation to the surrounding buildings;

The flag shall not be raised during inclement weather. If already raised prior to inclement weather, the flag shall not be lowered.

SEC. 19. Manner of Hoisting the Flag. – The flag shall be hoisted to the top briskly and lowered in the proper ceremony. After being lowered, the flag shall be handled and folded solemnly as part of the ceremony.

The flag shall never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, flood, water or other objects.

SEC. 20. Flag Ceremony in Public Offices and Educational Institutions. – All government offices and educational institutions shall hold a flag-raising ceremony every Monday or the next working day if Monday is declared a holiday, and a flag-lowering ceremony every Friday or on the last working day of each week. The ceremony shall be simple and dignified and shall include the playing and singing of the Philippine national anthem in its original lyrics and tempo.

SEC. 21. Dignity in the Observance of Flag Ceremony. – Likewise, the observance of the flag ceremony in official or civic gatherings shall be simple and dignified and shall include the playing and mandatory singing of the national anthem in its original Filipino lyrics and tempo.

SEC. 22. Flag-Raising Ceremony. – During a flag-raising ceremony, the assembly shall stand in formation facing the flag. A proper announcement shall be made prior to the singing of the national anthem. At the moment the first note of the anthem is heard, everyone in the premises shall come to attention; moving vehicles shall stop. All persons present shall place their right palms over their chest, those with hats shall uncover their heads; while those in military, scouting, security guard, and citizens military training uniforms shall execute a salute as prescribed by their regulations, which salute shall be completed upon the last note of the anthem.

The assembly shall sing the national anthem, accompanied by a band, if available, and at the first note, the flag shall be raised briskly.

The same procedure shall be observed when the flag is passing in review or in parade.

Individuals whose faith or religious beliefs prohibit them from singing the national anthem must, nonetheless, show full respect when the singing is being rendered by standing in attention.

SEC. 23. Flag-Lowering Ceremony. – The flag shall be lowered solemnly and slowly so that the flag shall be down the mast at the sound of the last note of the anthem. Those in the assembly shall observe the same deportment or behavior prescribed for the flag-raising ceremony.

SEC. 24. Flag in Half-Mast. – The flag shall be flown at half-mast as a sign of mourning on all the buildings and places where the deceased was holding office, on the day of official announcement of the death of any of the following officials:

(a) For the President or a former President, the flag shall be flown at half-mast for ten (10) days;

(b) For the incumbent and former Vice President, Chief Justice, President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, the flag shall be flown at half-mast for seven (7) days;

(c) For the incumbent and former members of the Supreme Court, the Cabinet, the Senate or the House of Representatives, and such other public officials or persons who have rendered distinguished service of national import or historical significance to the nation, the flag shall be flown at half-mast for any period less than seven (7) days; and

(d) For the incumbent and former elected officials of local government units (LGUs), the flag shall be flown at half-mast for any period less than seven (7) days.
To give due recognition and tribute to the selfless dedication of teachers, faculty, and administrators in all levels of education, the flag shall be allowed to be flown at half-mast as a sign of mourning on the day of the official announcement of the death of an incumbent teacher, faculty, and administrator for a period of not more than five (5) days in Department of Education (DepEd)-supervised schools or district offices, or in higher education institutions where the deceased was assigned to teach.

The flag when flown at half-mast shall be first hoisted to the peak for a moment then lowered to the half-mast position. The flag shall again be raised briskly to the peak before it is lowered for the day.

SEC. 25. Casket. – The flag may be used to cover the caskets of the honored dead who have rendered distinguished service to the nation. In such cases, the flag shall be placed such that the white triangle shall be at the head and the blue portion shall cover the right side of the caskets. At the interment of the honored dead, the flag shall not be lowered to the grave or allowed to touch the ground, but shall be folded solemnly, placed in a rectangular flag case, and handed over to the heirs of the deceased. The rectangular flag case in which the flag is enclosed may be placed by the heirs of the deceased in the appropriate area of their residence or the latter’s former office.

(a) The flag, placed as cover to the casket, shall be mandatory for the following:

9. Incumbent or former presidents of state universities and colleges;
10. Teachers and professors, whether active or retired, in the public schools or government recognized private schools;
11. Bona fide members of the media, as certified by the legitimate media organization to which the media practitioner is a member;
12. Athletes who represented the country in international competitions;
13. Filipinos, whether residing in the country or abroad, who have received awards or recognitions, or both, from internationally recognized award giving bodies for their commendable service to the community or to their contribution to society; and
14. Civilians who lost their lives while giving aid or assistance in times of calamity, national emergency, or to a person in serious need.

The flag to be used as cover for the casket, as well as the rectangular flag case of the honored dead listed under paragraph (a) herein, shall be provided by the government office to which the decedent had previously served. For the honored dead listed under paragraph (b), the flag to be used as cover for the casket, as well as the rectangular case, shall be provided by the family of the decedent.

SEC. 26. Pledge of Allegiance. – The following shall be the Pledge of Allegiance to the Philippine flag:

Ako ay Pilipino
Buong katapatang nanunumpa
Sa watawat ng Pilipinas
At sa bansang kanyang sinasagisag
Na may dangal, katarungan at kalayaan
Na pinakikilos ng sambayanang
Maka-Diyos
Makatao Makakalikasan at Makabansa.

The pledge of allegiance shall be recited while standing with the right hand, palm open and raised shoulder high. Individuals whose faith or religious beliefs prohibit them from making such pledge must, nonetheless, show full respect when the pledge is being rendered by standing at attention.

SEC. 27. Oath of Patriotism. – The following shall be the Oath of Patriotism to the Philippines which shall be recited by students in all levels in addition to the Pledge of Allegiance to the Philippine flag:

_Iniibig ko ang Pilipinas._
_Ito ang aking lupang sinilangan._
_Ito ang tahanan ng aking lahi._
_Ako'y kanyang kinukupkop at timutulungan_
_Upang maging malakas, maligaya,_
_At kapakipakinabang._
_Bilang ganti,_
_Dirlinggin ko ang payo_
_Ng aking mga magulang._
_Susundin ko ang mga tuntunin_
_Ng aking paaralan._
_Tutuparin ko ang mga tungkulin_
_Ng isang mamamayang makabayan_
_At masunurin sa batas._
_Paglilingkuran ko ang aking bayan_
_Nang walang pag-iimbot_
_At nagu ng katapatan._
_Sisikapin kong_
_Maging isang Tunay na Pilipino,_
_Sa isip, sa salita, at sa gawa._

The oath of patriotism shall be recited while standing with the right hand, palm open and raised shoulder high. It shall be recited in all basic education institutions after the singing of the national anthem. Individuals whose faith or religious beliefs prohibit them from making such oath must, nonetheless, show full respect when the oath is being rendered by standing at attention.

The NHCP shall, in consultation with the Komisyon sa Wikang Filipino (KWF), include in the rules and regulations to be issued for the implementation of this Act the translation of the pledge of allegiance and the oath of patriotism in the other Philippine languages or dialects.

SEC. 28. Flag Days. – The period from May 28 (National Flag Day) to June 12 (Independence Day) of each year is declared as Flag Days, during which period all offices, agencies and instrumentalities of government, business establishments, institutions of learning and private homes shall display the flag: _Provided, however, that the flag shall be displayed in private buildings and residences or raised on flagpoles in front of said buildings every April 9 (Araw ng Kagitingan); May 28 (National Flag Day) to June 12 (Independence Day); last Monday of August (National Heroes Day); November 30 (Bonifacio Day); December 30 (Rizal Day); and on such other days as may be declared by the President or local chief executives._
SEC. 29. Observance of Flag Days. – All government agencies and instrumentalities, local government offices, GOCCs, and LGUs are enjoined to observe Flag Days with appropriate ceremonies. Socio-civic groups, non-government organizations and the private sector are exhorted to cooperate in making the celebration a success.

SEC. 30. Flag Requisition Budget. – All departments, agencies, offices, and instrumentalities of the government, GOCCs, LGUs, including barangays, shall include in their annual budgets the necessary outlay for the purchase of the flag.

Furthermore, all LGUs shall allocate appropriate sums for a public awareness program on the Flag Code as well as on the proper implementation of the provisions of the Flag Code.

SEC. 31. Prohibited Acts. – The following Acts shall be prohibited:

(a) To burn, mutilate, deface, defile, trample on or cast contempt or commit any act or omission casting dishonor, ridicule, or disrespect upon the flag, anthem, seal, motto, coat-of-arms, and other heraldic items and devices;

(b) To dip the flag as a way of paying a compliment to any person or saluting an object;

(c) To use the flag per se:
   1. As drapery, festoon, tablecloth;
   2. As covering for ceilings, walls, statues or other objects;
   3. As drapery in the hood, side, back and top of motor vehicles; all cloth flags should be displayed freely waving in the air;

(d) Use or display the flag, seal, coat-of-arms, or be part of any advertisement or infomercial without the approval of the NHCP.

The NHCP shall be responsible for the strict enforcement of the provisions of this Act. It may call upon any government department, agency, office, or government instrumentality, including government corporations and local government units, for such assistance as it may deem necessary, for the effective discharge of its functions under this Act.

Chapter III
THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

SEC. 32. Title. – The Philippine national anthem is entitled “Lupang Hinirang”.

SEC. 33. Language and Lyrics. – The national anthem shall always be sung in the national language within or outside the country using the following prescribed lyrics:

Bayang magiliw, perlas ng silanganan,
Alab ng puso sa dibdib mo’y buhay.
Lupang hinirang, duyan ka ng magiting,
Sa manlulupig di ka pasisiil.

Sa dagat at bundok,
Sa simoy at sa langit mong bughaw,
May dilag ang tula,
At awit sa paglayang minamahal.
Ang kislap ng watawat mo’y
Tagumpay na nagningning,
Ang bituin at araw niya
Kaylan pa ma’y di magdidilim.

Lupa ng araw, ng l’walhati’t pagsinta,
Buhay ay langit sa piling mo;
Aming ligaya na pag may mang-aapi,
Ang mamatay nang dahil sa ‘yo.

SEC. 34. Rendition. – The rendition of the national anthem, whether played or sung, shall be in accordance with the original musical arrangement composed by Julian Felipe.

The NHCP shall, in coordination with the proper government agency, disseminate an official music score sheet that reflects the manner in which the national anthem should be played or sung.

SEC. 35. Manner of Singing. – When the national anthem is played at a public gathering, whether by a band or through the playing of a recording in any format, the attending public shall sing the national anthem. The singing shall be mandatory and must be done with fervor.

As a sign of respect, all persons shall stand in attention and face the Philippine flag, if there is one displayed, and if there is none, they shall face the band or the conductor. At the first note, all persons shall execute a salute by placing their right palms over the left part of the chest. The members of the military, those in military training, and security guards in uniform shall execute the salute prescribed by their regulations. The salute shall be completed upon the last note of the anthem.

Individuals, whose faith or religious beliefs prohibit them from singing the national anthem, must, nonetheless, show full respect when the anthem is being sung or played on record by standing in attention.

The national anthem shall not be played and sung preceding events of mere recreation, amusement or entertainment purposes except on the following occasions:

(a) International competitions where the Philippines is the host or has a representative;

(b) National or local sports competitions;

(c) During the “signing off” and “signing on” of radio broadcasting and television stations;

(d) Before the initial and last screening of films and before the opening of theater performances: Provided, That the owners and management of the establishments shall be mandated to enforce proper decorum and implement the pertinent provisions of this Act; and

(e) Other occasions as may be allowed by the NHCP.

SEC. 36. Strict Compliance with Rules for the Rendition of the National Anthem. – All officials and employees of the national and local governments, and any agency or instrumentality thereof, including privately-owned entities or offices displaying the Philippine flag and government institutions of learning are hereby directed to comply strictly with the rules prescribed for the rendition of the national anthem. Failure to observe the rules shall be a ground for administrative discipline.

SEC. 37. Obligations of Education Regulation Agencies. – The DepEd, the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), and the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) shall ensure that the national anthem, as mandated by law, shall be committed to memory by all students of both public and private educational institutions, and rendered during the flag ceremony conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations issued by the NHCP. In addition, they shall make available the vocal, piano or band scores of the national anthem, as mandated by law, to all private and public schools.

Chapter IV
