CALL TO ORDER

This being the day fixed in accordance with the Constitution for the beginning of the First Regular Session of the 17th Congress, the Secretary General of the House of Representatives under the 16th Congress, Atty. Marilyn B. Barua-Yap, called the session to order at ten o'clock in the morning.

NATIONAL ANTHEM AND PRAYER

Subsequently, Professor Ramon "Montet" Acoymo led the singing of the National Anthem and thereafter, Representative Mercedes K. Alvarez delivered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, our Almighty God, we come before You today and praise You for bringing us together in this august hall of the Congress of the Republic of the Philippines.

As we start our work for more than 100 million Filipinos, we humbly seek Your guidance and direction. Bring Your presence with each one of us so that we may all work responsibly for our brothers and sisters.

Anoint our thoughts, words and actions so that even our smallest accomplishment may bring You glory. Help us remember that not ours, but Your power and glory should be acknowledged over all the words spoken and actions taken within this institution. While each one of us is unique, give us the collective wisdom to always know what is right and the courage to do it.

As Your children, we ask for Your grace and strength to stand against the temptation to use power as a weapon, but rather as a blessing to others, especially our fellow Filipinos. Grant us the grace to hear Your voice as we make decisions. Lead our way to truth and righteousness. Help us to do our best each day and perform our duties with excellence. As You have said, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." Bless us, protect us, let Your hand be with us and keep us in Your name.

All these we do in Your honor, all these for all Filipinos and our country, our motherland, the Philippines.

Amen.

Thereafter, with 285 Members responding to the Call, the Presiding Officer declared the presence of a quorum.

DESIGNATION OF REP. FARIÑAS AS ACTING FLOOR LEADER

In the interest of orderly proceedings, the Presiding Officer designated Representative Rodolfo C. Fariñas of the First District of Ilocos Norte as Acting Floor Leader.

ADOPTION OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE, AS AMENDED

On motion of Rep. Fariñas, there being no objection, the Body adopted the Rules of the 16th Congress as the Provisional Rules of the House to govern its proceedings until the adoption of the Rules for the 17th Congress, subject to the amendment that the first sentence of Section 94, Rule 12, entitled, "Conduct and Attire During Sessions and Committee Meetings," shall read as follows: MEMBERS SHALL WEAR PROPER ATTIRE WHICH IS BARONG FILIPINO OR COAT AND TIE OR BUSINESS ATTIRE FOR MEN, AND FILIPINA DRESS OR BUSINESS SUIT FOR WOMEN, AND OBSERVE PROPER DECORUM DURING SESSIONS AND COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

PERIOD OF NOMINATIONS FOR THE POSITION OF THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

In accordance with the constitutional duty of the House to organize and receive the President's State of the Nation Address later in the day, on motion of Rep. Fariñas, there being no objection, the Body proceeded to the period of nominations for the position of Speaker of the House.

POINT OF CLARIFICATION OF REP. ATIENZA

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Jose L. Atienza Jr. said that he wanted to ask clarificatory questions on the election process. Rep. Fariñas said that he will entertain the same after the nomination period which the Chair thereafter adopted.

POINT OF ORDER OF REP. FUENTEBELLA

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Arnulfo P. Fuentebella asked that the Chamber proceed to the oath-taking of the Members before the election of the Speaker, as was stated in the Order of Business.

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The Chair ruled that in accordance with (1) parliamentary tradition and practice and (2) the amended Rules of the House that the 17th Congress had adopted, it is the Speaker of the House that administers the oath to the new Members. She added that the oath-taking before the Speaker at the commencement of the First Regular Session is an affirmation of the oaths they had already taken before noontime of June 30, 2016. She explained that in accordance with several Supreme Court decisions, the Members had already complied with the three requirements for membership into the Chamber, namely, a valid certificate of proclamation; oath-taking before any duly authorized officer; and assumption into office without any question by noontime of June 30, 2016. She also stressed that the House's highest constitutional privilege was to organize itself before proceeding with its business.

MOTION OF REP. FUENTEBELLA

As he appealed the ruling of the Chair, Rep. Fuentebella said that it was anomalous for the House to elect the Speaker before the oath-taking of the Members. He then asked for a suspension of session as well as a voting on his point of order.

REMARKS OF REP. FARIÑAS

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Fariñas read into the records Section 1, Rule 1 of the aforementioned House Rules as he observed that Rep. Fuentebella did not cite any rule that was being violated.

Thereupon, Rep. Fariñas moved that the Body recognize Rep. Feliciano Belmonte Jr. from the Fourth District of Quezon City for his nomination speech.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. FUENTEBELLA

For his part, Rep. Fuentebella said that he will discuss his position at the proper time.

NOMINATION SPEECH OF REP. BELMONTE (F.)

In nominating Rep. Pantaleon D. Alvarez from the First District of Davao del Norte to be the Speaker of the 17th Congress, Rep. Belmonte cited his personal and professional relationship with the former who was a Member of the 11th Congress and then the Secretary of Transportation and Communications under the administration of former President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo. He stressed that the nation should grant the incoming Speaker the same overwhelming mandate it gave to President Rodrigo Duterte. He stressed that despite a rainbow coalition, the 17th Congress can pass important measures because the Members' sense of nationalism will always prevail over their political and personal interests. He committed the Liberal Party's support for the quest for change which, while not easy, could be achieved through consensus and compromise. He opined that Rep. Alvarez (P.) will ensure that Congress will work together with President Duterte to achieve the people's aspirations and welfare.

Teddy Brawner Baguilat Jr. from the Lone District of Ifugao Province as Speaker of the House of Representatives. For the record, he took pride in emphasizing that this was the first time that a Member who belongs to the so-called cultural minority was nominated to the highest office of the Chamber. He thereafter recalled Rep. Baguilat's political career and enumerated his achievements as a Governor and Representative of Ifugao Province. Alvarez, Fredenil “Fred” H. Castro, Raneo “Ranie” E. Abu, Lucy T. Gomez, Nancy A. Catamco, Elenita Milagros “Eileen” Ermita-Buhain, Rose Marie “Baby” J. Arenas, Mylene J. Garcia-Albano, Gwendolyn F. Garcia, Marlyn L. Primicias-Agabas, Emmeline Aglipay-Villar, Sarah Jane I. Elago and Victoria Isabel G. Noel.

SUSPENSION OF SESSION

The Presiding Officer motu proprio suspended the session at 12:43 p.m.

RESUMPTION OF SESSION

Upon resumption of session at 12:45 p.m., the Presiding Officer requested Rep. Dennis C. Laogan to ascend the rostrum to administer the oath of office to Speaker-elect Alvarez (P.). She likewise requested all the Members to rise.

OATH-TAKING OF SPEAKER ALVAREZ (P.)

Thereafter, Rep. Laogan administered the oath of office to Rep. Pantaleon D. Alvarez as Speaker of the House of Representatives in the presence of the members of his family and the Members of the House of Representatives.

At this juncture, the Presiding Officer relinquished the Chair to Speaker Alvarez who delivered the following acceptance speech.

ACCEPTANCE SPEECH OF SPEAKER ALVAREZ (P.)

Colleagues, guests, ladies and gentlemen: President Rodrigo Roa Duterte was elected into office on the basis of a simple promise to the Filipino people—genuine change. Those were refreshing words for a people tired and weary of rising criminality, proliferation of illegal drugs, traffic congestion, corruption and plain incompetence. Those were the words that blew on the mainsail of his campaign and brought him to a new horizon, the horizon of national transformation. But the President knows, as we all know, that genuine change is impossible if he acts alone. No one, man or woman, not even a superman, can forge genuine change without the cooperation of the other branches of government and the cooperation of the people themselves.

True and genuine change can only come if we, as a people, and as a nation join hands with the President in achieving it. That is why, we, in the Legislative Branch of government have our work cut out for us. We must give the President the necessary legislation, which will be his tools as we effect meaningful and genuine change.

In some, we too must be instruments of change. We must re-impose the death penalty for heinous crimes.

Among ASEAN nations, only Cambodia and the Philippines have no capital punishment. All the other eight countries imposed death penalty in various forms and for various crimes.

As the President has said, it is a simple universal law of karma “If you borrow from me a thousand pesos, then, you must pay back the same amount plus interest.” If you take a human life, especially if you do it deliberately and with premeditation, you must pay with your life. If by being a drug lord, you destroyed the lives and futures of a thousand people, then, you must pay accordingly.

The same philosophy is behind the move to revert the minimum age of criminal responsibility, from 15 years to nine years old. This is not, as critics say, a throwback to a barbarian age. The age of exemption from criminal responsibility in Singapore is seven. The same age as in most states in the USA.

The Pangilinan Law was admittedly motivated by noble intentions, but it has been a failure on the ground. We must teach our young that there are consequences for everything we say and do. Coddling teenagers by making them immune from crimes they commit will only breed a culture of impunity. We should instead build a culture of responsibility at an early age.

As all commuters know, and that includes all of us here, the traffic in Metro Manila and Metro Cebu is simply terrible. We waste so many hours sitting in cars or buses or riding in jampacked and rickety MRT and PNR trains instead of spending time at work or being with our families at home. ₱2.4 billion a day is lost to traffic alone. The situation is, in most certain terms, a true crisis which needs emergency powers to enable the President to act.

In this vein, we should revisit and revise the Government Procurement Act. Since its passage into law, many government agencies as well as those in the private sector have felt discomforted with R.A. No. 9184 as amended. Unlike a free size shirt, the Procurement Law should not be a one-size-fits-all kind of law. We should put in enough flexibility to address all foreseeable possibilities that may arise in the course of government procurement.

The President has started the ball rolling in the direction of greater transparency in government with an Executive Order on Freedom of Information. We should do our part and enact a meaningful Freedom of Information Law, applicable to all branches of government. The greatest crimes are committed in dark secrecy. A Freedom of Information Law will bring the light of truth and transparency into government transactions.

The Law on Income Taxation should be simplified into one imposed on gross income progressively. Tax laws have become so complicated that they are exploited by corrupt BIR officials in order to extort money from the taxpayers. Ordinary individuals for their part choose not to pay taxes precisely because they do not understand tax laws. A simplified law on taxation would encourage people to pay taxes and contribute to a society that they know will take care of them.

As for mining, we would like to see mining companies securing a legislative franchise before they are allowed to operate. That way, their activities would be subject to legislative oversight and their franchises can be revoked by the oversight body instead of a probably bribable bureaucrat in an obscure DENR office if they violate the terms and conditions thereof.

Also, we would like to ensure that these companies do not export the ores they mine. Processing or semi-processing of these ores should be done within the Philippines. This is one way to give jobs to our people, instead of enriching only the stockholders of mining companies.

The labor laws need revision. We should increase the penalties presently in our statutes for the non-payment of minimum wage. And, the National Wages and Productivity Commission, the DOLE, should have an arm that will make sure violators are prosecuted. The practice of "endo" should be looked into. Manpower supply agencies should be mandated upon paying of criminal liability to comply with all labor standards of wages and benefits and the employer beneath solidarity liable.

As for social security, it is only right and just that the pensions of our retirees should be adjusted upwards so they can buy their groceries and their medicines at today's prices. If we need to increase contributions so we can fund the increase in pension benefits, then we must. We must adjust not only to meet the present needs but also to anticipate future needs.

During elections, our senior citizens and PWDs or differently abled citizens should have the option to avail of the procedures of absentee voting. The fact that you are elderly or in a wheelchair should not disenfranchise you from participating in the most sacred exercise in a democratic nation, electing your leaders into office.

Instead, and of course, the most holy grail of all, the revision of the 1987 Constitution and the transformation of our system of government from a unitary, presidential form to a federal parliamentary one. The unitary and highly centralized form of government was imposed on us by the colonizing power of Spain and the United States of America. And, for one reason, total control over the country. The results have been stunted growth in about 80 percent of our country, and the over dependence of local government units upon the national government. The power of imperial Manila over the rest of our nation has to end.

Our LGUs need to be allowed to stand on their own feet and to develop and go as they see fit subject only to standards that the national government may set. These among others should be done by a Constitutional Convention within a time limit set by Congress. If this legislative agenda seem overly ambitious to some, it is only because of inertia. A body at rest tends to rest indefinitely and will resist movement. But we should not be like the admiral who because he feels the big waves of the Pacific and the journey into the unknown, drop anchor in a harbor and held office there. Let us not fear change, the only thing we should fear is the fear of change itself. Instead, let us invade change, let us be instruments of change. And apply the other side of the law of inertia, "A body on the move, tends to move indefinitely." Starting today, then let us roll-up our sleeves and get to work. Our mission in this 17th Congress is clear, to enact laws that will deliver to our nation and our peoples, a future better than yesterday's and brighter than today's. Tinuod na kausaban, daghang salamat.

NOMINATION SPEECH OF REP. ZAMORA (R.)

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Ronaldo B. Zamora initially acknowledged the laborious process of plenary and committee works and pointed out that the 17th Congress would require a majority leader who is not adverse to change, is ready to sacrifice even his personal and family time if they need to bring about legislative consensus, has passion for public service, has an established track record in the legislature and proven public administration skills, and who will not fear or develop second thoughts in helping stir Congress into possibly unchartered legislative waters.

He said that he can only think of one name and that is Rep. Fariñas whose qualities include the following, among others: a bar topper, at one time Laoag City’s and the country’s youngest mayor, governor of the Province of Ilocos Norte for more than a decade, a multiple term Member of the House of Representatives, an expert in the impeachment process, and most importantly, a public servant who turns to prayer and the rosary on a daily basis as a venue for reflection and divine guidance.
