With 216 affirmative votes, seven negative votes, and no abstentions, the Body approved on Third Reading House Bill No. 5745.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

The following Members explained their votes:

1. Rep. Arlene D. Brosas said she was voting against the measure because it was a great injustice to farmers; it did not address the interest of the coconuts farmers because they do not have direct involvement on how the money that was allegedly stolen from them will be used to help and propagate the coconut industry; and it will just pave the way to more corruption and injustice to the sector it aims to protect. She stressed that the GABRIELA Party-List remained firm in their stand and commitment in the return of the coco levy funds plundered by the Marcos dictatorship.

2. Speaking in Filipino, Rep. Ariel “Ka Ayik” B. Casilao voted “No” to House Bill No. 5745 for the following reasons: the Supreme Court ruling to restore the funds in favor of the coconut farmers did not benefit the coconut farmers but only the coconut industry; the passage of the measure will merely repeat the plunder of funds; and the Bill did not have concrete benefits for small farmers.

MANIFESTATION OF REPRESENTATIVE LAGMAN

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Edcel C. Lagman confirmed his affirmative vote as recorded by the Secretariat and manifested that he will submit a written explanation of vote.

With 227 affirmative votes, no negative votes, and no abstentions, the Body approved on Third Reading the aforementioned House Bills.

THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

The day being a Monday, on motion of Representative Nograles (J.J.), there being no objection, the Chair declared a Privilege Hour and recognized Representative Panotes for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE PANOTES

Adverting to the recent celebration of the National Hero's Day, Representative Panotes spoke about her personal hero, Wenceslao "Bintao" Q. Vinzons Sr. She pointed out that Bintao stood against the Japanese Imperial Forces with his soul, love for country, intellect, and dignity. She also mentioned his opposition to western imperialism and advocacy for land reform, the rights of the women and labor sectors, and local government autonomy. She acknowledged his founding of the Pan Malaysian Association which can be compared to the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN); governorship of Camarines Norte and representation thereof in the Philippine Legislature; and participation as the youngest among the framers of the 1935 Constitution.

Representative Panotes then stressed that Bintao should be recognized as a hero of national stature; and informed the Body that she will file a Bill to commemorate his birth anniversary as a tribute to his gallantry.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE PANOTES' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Francisco Jose F. Matugas II, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Panotes' privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, on another motion of Representative Matugas, the Chair recognized Rep. Mark O. Go for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE GO (M.)

Representative Go spoke about the adversarial relationship between labor and management and initially discussed how such distant relationship began during the Industrial Revolution and how profit became the sole concern and motivation of businesses. Subsequently, he emphasized the importance of protecting labor, justice, and equity under a policy of social justice.

Representative Go thereafter posited that cooperative or collaborative labor relations should be satisfactorily demonstrated, faithfully relational, and pursued as an urgent advocacy. He asked the Executive to resolve pending labor cases; formulate mechanisms and policies to encourage creative collaboration between labor and management; and improve labor policies to foster better working conditions and labor-management relationships. He suggested that Congress review the mandate and organizational structure of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) and determine how labor injustice and problems could be remedied by revisiting the Labor Code of the Philippines.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE GO'S (M.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Matugas, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Go to the Committee on Rules.

The Chair then recognized Rep. Gary C. Alejano for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE ALEJANO

Representative Alejano expressed concern about the dangers and tension in the West Philippine Sea due to overlapping territorial claims and competition over resources. He cited Chinese harassment of Filipino fishermen in the area and the arrest and killing of Vietnamese and other nationals for illegally fishing in the waters of Bolinao, Pangasinan. He pointed out that the Duterte Administration was keeping silent or was downplaying the situation by not filing any diplomatic protest in connection therewith.

Representative Alejano then underscored the urgency of having a comprehensive strategy in the West Philippine Sea to provide guidance to all stakeholders therein; and of providing for a budget for the protection of territories in the aforesaid area. He opined that the Philippines must assert its claims through peaceful and non-aggressive, non-military means while respecting international laws.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE ALEJANO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Matugas, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Alejano's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

On motion of Representative Matugas, the Chair recognized Rep. Rodante D. Marcoleta to deliver a privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE MARCOLETA

Representative Marcoleta spoke about the motion that he made during the plenary budget deliberations to give the Commission on Human Rights (CHR) a ₱1,000 budget, which triggered netizens to react and crucify him in social media.

He cited the provisions of the Constitution and proceedings of the 1986 Constitutional Commission regarding human rights as he pointed out that (1) the CHR failed to conduct an investigation on the possible abuses of human rights in the wake of the Mamasapano incident, the Maute rebellion, and Abu Sayyaf atrocities; and (2) it reasoned out that these were outside of its jurisdiction.

Then adverting to the restoration of the CHR's budget after a dialogue between the officials of the agency and the House, Representative Marcoleta clarified that the institution had never advocated the abolition of the CHR and just wanted it to remain loyal to the command of the Constitution. He requested the agency to dismantle its deceptive and misleading infographics, saying that such an act of arrogance has summarily violated the rights of the people.

On motion of Representative Matugas, the Chair recognized Rep. Raul V. Del Mar to interpellate Representative Marcoleta.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE DEL MAR

Representatives Del Mar and Marcoleta adverted to the period of interpellations on the proposed 2018 budget of the CHR. The former recalled that Representative Marcoleta interpellated him as the Sponsor thereof and proposed to reduce the agency's budget to ₱1,000; the proposal was objected to by some Members; and the Body voted thereon, first by viva voce voting and then through a division of the House. He asked whether it was his colleague's position at that time that the CHR was not doing its job of protecting the rights of the forces of the State.

Representative Marcoleta recalled that he drew attention to Section 18, Article XIII of the Constitution on the CHR's mandate. He said that Representative Del Mar responded by saying, upon the CHR Chairman's prompting, that the protection of political rights was not within the jurisdiction of the agency and that it only covered the agents of the State. He said that he then argued that such a position was against the Constitution and the CHR was liable for the same; Representative Del Mar as the sponsor of the agency's budget should not have been the mouthpiece of the Chairman but should have spoken his heart out and defended said budget the way he thought it should have been defended; and the CHR could not turn its back against the Constitution that had created it.

Representative Del Mar explained that in addition to the information given him by the CHR Chairperson, he was going to give supplemental answers and explanations; but that Representative Marcoleta's motion cut off the deliberations.

Thereupon, Representative Del Mar focused on the speech that Representative Marcoleta had just delivered where he complained that the CHR should have also investigated the human rights violations of the Maute and Abu Sayyaf rebels and the perpetrators of the Mamasapano massacre.

After Representative Marcoleta promised to give a clearer copy of his Powerpoint presentation, Representative Del Mar asked how the CHR could investigate the actions of rebels during a shooting war where both sides are trying to kill each other. He pointed out that the CHR should use its investigative powers in a practical, factual, and truthful way.

Representative Marcoleta clarified that he was not saying that the CHR should investigate rebel groups during a shooting war but that it should at least visit evacuation centers and ask about human rights violations considering such was within its mandate to do so. He stressed that the only issue was the insistence of the CHR to make a dividing line in order to investigate only the agents of the State, which is not provided for in the Constitution.

When the two Members then turned to another matter and Representative Del Mar stated that the President does not need the CHR to protect him considering the government forces at his disposal, Representative Marcoleta remarked that his colleague was not conducting an interpellation and was talking about something that was not within the context of his speech in the same way when he was defending the CHR's proposed budget. For his part, Representative Del Mar explained that during the budget deliberation, he could not continue answering questions when Representative Marcoleta made a motion to reduce the CHR's proposed budget.

Thereupon, Representatives Del Mar and Marcoleta discussed the constitutionality of the proposed budget reduction.

REMINDER FROM THE CHAIR

At this point, the Chair reminded the Members to speak one at a time.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE DEL MAR (Continuation)

Representative Marcoleta asked what provision of the Constitution did he violate in recommending a ₱1,000 budget for the CHR. Representative Del Mar stressed that the CHR, being a constitutional body, could not be abolished; and his colleague's motion was tantamount to abolishing said agency.

Representative Marcoleta rebutted by clarifying that he did not say that he wanted to abolish the CHR and that he only wanted to deliver a strong message to the agency that was violating its constitutional mandate by choosing to perform only some functions and investigating only the agents of the State.

Representatives Marcoleta and Del Mar subsequently debated on the duty and jurisdiction of the CHR as mandated by the Constitution as regards human rights violations. The latter opined that the agency was doing its job but had to focus on the many violations committed by State agents. The former disagreed therewith and maintained that it should investigate all kinds of violations and not focus on a particular group of people.

Thereafter, Representative Del Mar reiterated that the CHR could not investigate human rights violations during shoot-outs; while Representative Marcoleta countered that it could choose its time to do so.

POINT OF ORDER OF REPRESENTATIVE DIMAPORO (M.K.)

Rep. Mohamad Khalid Q. Dimaporo asked about the time limit for interpellations as he manifested his desire to ask questions as well.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE MATUGAS

Representative Matugas stated that the Privilege Hour had already expired.

REMINDER FROM THE CHAIR

Thereupon, the Chair reminded Representative Del Mar to wrap up his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE DEL MAR (Continuation)

Representative Del Mar stated that the CHR will continue to be active in performing its mandate and although he still had many questions to ask, he will yield to the ruling of the Chair.

EXTENSION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

On subsequent motions of Representative Matugas, there being no objection, the Body extended the Privilege Hour for another 15 minutes; and the Chair recognized Representative Dimaporo (M.K.) for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE DIMAPORO (M.K.)

Representative Dimaporo inquired if the CHR had failed the evacuees living in the evacuation centers spread across Iligan City, Lanao del Norte, and Lanao del Sur.

Representative Marcoleta replied that he expected the CHR to have visited said centers and to have documented the children who stopped schooling, individuals who were deprived of their livelihood, and houses that had been destroyed. He rued the fact that the CHR said that the same was not within their jurisdiction, contrary to the provisions of the Constitution.

At this point, Representative Dimaporo commended Representative Marcoleta for defending the dignity and rights of the evacuees.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE MARCOLETA'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Thereupon, on motion of Representative Matugas, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Marcoleta, including the interpellations thereon, to the Committee on Rules.

Likewise, on motion of Representative Matugas, the Chair recognized Representative De Jesus for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE DE JESUS

Representative De Jesus spoke about child malnutrition which has a direct effect on the growth, intelligence, and productivity of children. She shared her insights from a nutrition budget policy forum that she recently attended; and then urged her colleagues to fully recognize Congress' role in ensuring a sufficient and justified budget allocation for government programs and projects that would help children suffering from malnutrition.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE DE JESUS' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Matugas, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative De Jesus to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, on motion of Representative Matugas, the Chair next recognized Representative Dimaporo (M.K.) for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE DIMAPORO (M.K.)

Representative Dimaporo discussed the struggle of Mindanaoans for peace and independence through the efforts and leadership of the Moro National Liberation Front (MNLF) and Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF); and peace negotiations and agreements with the Philippine Government. He emphasized the need to approve the Bangsamoro Basic Law (BBL) which was pending since the 16th Congress, in order to achieve the goal of peace in Mindanao. He however expressed apprehension that the same was not possible because of the tedious legislative process, the present Administration's lack of political will and sense of urgency to address the issue, and the current unitary form of government that confined power to the central government.

Representative Dimaporo then stated that even if the Muslims and Christians in Lanao del Norte already live peacefully among each other and do not need the Bangsamoro, they will stand united as a province in support of the same if their brothers in Islam from the MILF and Lanao del Sur feel that they need it and provided that the people's voice will be heard in a plebiscite. He pointed out that as far as Lanao del Norte is concerned, poverty is their true enemy and social unrest will prevail if there is no peace that is sustainable through an accelerated economic development.

Representative Dimaporo subsequently stated that he will vote for the Bangsamoro as long as it adheres to the Constitution, as he took note of the fact that only a few more months were left for Congress to approve the BBL before the May 2018 barangay elections which he opined was the opportune time line for the President to sign the law.

On motion of Representative Matugas, the Chair recognized Rep. Celso L. Lobregat for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE LOBREGAT

Representatives Dimaporo (M.K.) and Lobregat discussed the constitutionality of the Memorandum of Agreement on Ancestral Domain (MOA-AD) which was the predecessor of the BBL; and the similarity of the provisions of both documents, with some unconstitutional and controversial provisions in the former document still being in the latter. They agreed to correct said provisions including those that will result in the expansion of the territory of the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM); as well as to protect the areas outside the ARMM.

The two Members then shared the opinion that the expansion of ARMM territory will promote instability in Mindanao.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE DIMAPORO'S (M.K.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Upon Representative Matugas' motion, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Dimaporo's privilege speech and the interpellation thereon to the Committee on Rules.

TERMINATION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

On motion of Representative Matugas, there being no objection, the Body terminated the Privilege Hour.

ADOPTION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1584 AS AN AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL NO. 6308

With the concurrence of the Committee on Suffrage and Electoral Reforms through Chairperson Sherwin N. Tugna, the Sponsor, and authors of the measure, on motion of Majority Leader Rodolfo C. Fariñas, there being no objection, the Body adopted Senate Bill No. 1584 as an amendment to House Bill No. 6308, which seeks to postpone the October 23, 2017 synchronized barangay and Sangguniang Kabataan elections.
