Dear Speaker Alvarez:

Pursuant to the provisions of Article VI, Section 26 (2) of the 1987 Constitution, I hereby certify to the necessity of the immediate enactment of Senate Bill No. 1592 (the proposed Tax Reform for Acceleration and Inclusion Act), entitled:

to address the immediate need for tax reforms in order to achieve a simpler, fairer, and more efficient tax system characterized by lower personal income tax rates, a broader value-added tax (VAT) base, and higher excise taxes on oil products and automobiles, among others. The benefits to be derived from this tax reform measure will sustainably finance the Government’s envisioned massive investments in infrastructure to encourage economic activity and job creation, as well as increase the public budget for health, education and social programs to alleviate poverty.

Best regards.

Very truly yours,

(SGD.) RODRIGO ROA DUTERTE

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body ratified the Conference Committee Report on the disagreeing provisions of House Bill No. 5670 and Senate Bill No. 1465, granting free irrigation service to small farmers.

ADOPTION OF SENATE BILL NO. 209 AS AN AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL NO. 6136

With the concurrence of the Committee on Higher and Technical Education as well as the authors of the Bill, on motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body adopted Senate Bill No.

209 as an amendment to House Bill No. 6136, declaring the 25th day of August of every year as the “National Technical-Vocational Day.”

THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

It being a Monday, on motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair declared a Privilege Hour and thereafter recognized Rep. Divina Grace C. Yu for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE YU

In commemoration of National Children’s Month, Representative Yu took the floor to champion the cause of the Filipino child who she said is beleaguered by the birthing pains of a drug-free Philippines.

After discussing the Convention on the Rights of the Child and the Child and Youth Welfare Code of 1989, she mentioned the House Committee on Welfare of Children and Child Rights Network’s activities in the premises of the House of Representatives with “Karahasan Wakasan, Bata Protektahan” as the major theme.

Representative Yu thereafter spoke about the Committee’s ongoing deliberations on the Magna Carta of Day Care Workers and other bills including those that make it illegal to leave children below eight years old inside motor vehicles and regulate children’s products containing hazardous materials. Also mentioning the bills that the Committee had already approved such as those providing for the protection of children in armed conflict and rehabilitation for children with disabilities, she asked for the Body’s support for all of said measures.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE YU’S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Yu’s privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, upon motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. Ariel “Ka Ayik” B. Casilao for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE CASILAO

Representative Casilao, speaking in Filipino, focused on land reform as he adverted to the forthcoming celebration of Bonifacio Day. He explained that farmers comprised most of the participants in Andres Bonifacio's revolution against Spanish feudalism and colonialism. He pointed out that when the Americans took over the country, they introduced capitalism and imperialism which hindered land reform as well. He cited President Rodrigo Roa Duterte's pronouncements that land reform was a basic cause for membership in the New People's Army.

Representative Casilao however stressed that despite the fact that the farmers comprise the majority of the population and depend on land for shelter and livelihood, President Duterte has not delivered on his promise for genuine agrarian reform and the farmers continued to be deprived of owning the land that they till. He pointed out that if Congress will not prioritize the matter, protest rallies will increase; the NPA's membership will go up; and more farmers will be hungry and angry.

Thereupon, he challenged his colleagues to stand up for genuine change and democratic reform starting with genuine agrarian reform and rural development; and to give life and meaning to the struggle of the peasants and Gat Bonifacio to achieve national freedom and democracy.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE CASILAO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Casilao to the Committee on Rules.

Upon motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair next recognized Rep. Gary C. Alejano for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE ALEJANO

In commemoration of the celebration of the 67th birth anniversary of the Philippine Marine Corps (PMC), Representative Alejano shared how it came into being by virtue of General Order No. 319, and became the barometer of excellence, dedication, and selfless service in the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP). He thereafter showed a video presentation on the exploits, challenges, and triumphs in the battlefield faced by the PMC during the Marawi crisis, which he said was also a tribute to the 35 Marines who died during the crisis. He then urged his colleagues to provide a strong legal ground for the PMC's existence and support his proposed measure that would institutionalize its establishment in the AFP and give it full fiscal autonomy to continue doing its mandate of defending the country and the Filipino people.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE ALEJANO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Alejano to the Committee on Rules.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE DEFENSOR

Representative Defensor pointed out that Reps. Arnolfo "Arnie" A. Teves Jr. and Mohamad Khalid Q. Dimaporo, who had been listed to avail of the Privilege Hour, were not around at that moment.

On Representative Defensor's motion, the Chair then recognized Rep. Leopoldo N. Bataoil to deliver his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE BATAOIL

Representative Bataoil initially expressed gratitude, as Chairperson of the House Committee on Veterans Affairs and Welfare, for receiving a congressional gold medal on behalf of World War II Filipino veterans upon the invitation of the United States Congress.

He explained that he felt honored by the medal because it is one of America's highest civilian awards bestowed to persons who have made an impact on American history and culture and his uncle and namesake was one of said veterans.

Thereafter underscoring that veteran soldiers and retired members of the Philippine National Police (PNP) should be given due respect and recognition, Representative Bataoil cited complaints of PNP retirees against the proposal of the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) to exclude pensioners in the proposed adjustment of pensions. He pointed out that Presidential Decree No. 1638 and Republic Act (R.A.) No. 6975 as amended by R.A. No. 8551, provide that the retirement pay of officers/non-officers of the PNP and AFP shall be subject to adjustments based on the prevailing scale of base pay of police/military personnel in the active service.

Representative Bataoil thus asked Congress for a careful study on a DBM-drafted joint resolution thereon; and moved to maintain the base pay indexation of police and military retirees until the DBM could present a viable plan for pension reforms.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE BATAOIL'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Bataoil's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

On further motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. Mark O. Go for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE GO (M.)

Representative Go informed the Body that Baguio City was recently made an official member of the Creative Cities Network of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) under the crafts and folk arts creative field.

He explained the procedure that the city underwent in order to be recognized for its chosen field of recognition and cited several aspects that it was evaluated on such as cultural assets; history and economic performance; communities and groups engaged in the creative field; and pertinent policies, programs, learning institutions, facilities, and infrastructure.

Thereupon, Representative Go underscored the need to support creative industries in order to achieve the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development as well as the importance of micro, small, and medium enterprises (MSMEs) as the key towards sustainable and inclusive growth. He stressed that in order to support countrywide development, there must be a way to encourage entrepreneurship in the rest of the archipelago, particularly on creative industries. He urged his colleagues to explore the potential of creative industries and to seek the necessary support and assistance of the national government for this endeavor.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE GO'S (M.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Thereupon, on motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Go to the Committee on Rules.

EXTENSION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

On subsequent motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body extended the Privilege Hour for another 15 minutes; and the Chair recognized Rep. Aurora Enerio Cerilles for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE CERILLES

Representative Cerilles brought to the attention of the Body what she called the blatant injustice committed by the National Police Commission (NAPOLCOM) headed by Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Acting Secretary Catalino Cuy through the issuance of NAPOLCOM Resolution No. 2017-571.

She explained that said Resolution withdrew Zamboanga del Sur Governor Antonio H. Cerilles' operational supervision and control over the Philippine National Police (PNP) due to his alleged links to illegal drugs. She pointed out that Governor Cerilles has no such power over PNP units and that it belongs to the city and municipal mayors as provided for by R. A. No. 6975. She clarified that the governor's case has nothing to do with illegal drugs as earlier reported in several media outlets but was based on a confidential report on his alleged abuse of authority.

She then lamented the fact that Secretary Cuy has not made any statements clarifying the misinformation. She cited the governor's programs against illegal drugs. She also expressed hope that the DILG will not support or subscribe to political intrigues; and asked those who are using their power to further their political ambition, not to destroy Zamboanga del Sur and picture it as a narco-province.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE CERILLES' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Thereupon, on motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Cerilles to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, on motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. France L. Castro for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE CASTRO (F. L.)

In commemoration of the United Nations Universal Children's Day, Representative Castro decried the lack of government support for the promotion and protection of the rights and welfare of the Filipino children particularly the lumad youths' right to education.

Representative Castro pointed out that military attacks against lumads in Mindanao was due to the marginal group's opposition to mining and logging which destroy natural resources and pose danger to their ancestral domain. She said that the attacks intensified with the issuance of Department of Education (DepEd) Order No. 221, series of 2013, that allows military camps in schools. She stressed that schools closed down, residents evacuated, and the schooling of lumad youths stopped all because of militarization, harassment, killings, bombings, and human rights violations.

On behalf of the lumads, Representative Castro then asked DepEd Secretary Leonor M. Briones to solve the militarization of lumad schools and condemn the same; investigate cases of connivance between DepEd regional offices, the AFP, and local government units in closing down lumad schools; and grant permits to operate and certificates of recognition to all lumad schools. She also asked the government to stop the attacks against lumads and Moros in Mindanao and the implementation of martial law and Oplan Kapayapaan; and to promote a nationalistic, scientific, and pro-poor kind of education.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE CASTRO'S (F.L.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Castro's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, on further motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. Mohamad Khalid Q. Dimaporo for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE DIMAPORO (M.K.)

Representative Dimaporo initially congratulated and thanked the President, the AFP, and the PNP for the killing of Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) terrorist leaders in Marawi and the liberation of the city.

He subsequently discussed three areas of concern in Mindanao, namely, the PNP and local governance; the thin line between insurgency and terrorism; and the need to augment the budget of the military. He explained the importance of addressing the same in order to ensure that terrorism will be addressed and contained.

After discussing the crisis in Marawi City, Representative Dimaporo said that he had filed a resolution seeking a detailed account of what really happened therein so as to give the military a chance to air its side on their alleged abuses and human rights violations and enable Congress to verify if there is a need to increase the funds for military spending.

He also mentioned the Bangsamoro Basic Law, saying its passage can either be part of the solution for terrorism or make it worse by propagating the same socioeconomic conditions which led to the entry of ISIS in the Autonomous Region for Muslim Mindanao. He suggested that during the deliberations thereon, such matters as devolving the PNP and DepEd to the Bangsamoro government and restricting AFP movement in the Bangsamoro territory should be discussed.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE DIMAPORO'S (M.K.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Dimaporo to the Committee on Rules.

TERMINATION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

On Representative Defensor's further motion, there being no objection, the Body terminated the privilege hour.

TRANSMITTAL OF HOUSE BILLS APPROVED ON THIRD READING

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair directed the Secretariat to immediately transmit to the Senate all House Bills previously approved on Third Reading.

RESIGNATION OF REPRESENTATIVE TURABIN-HATAMAN AS AMIN PARTY-LIST REPRESENTATIVE

At this point, Majority Leader Rodolfo C. Fariñas remarked that Rep. Sitti Djalila A. Turabin-Hataman delivered a privilege speech on October 2, 2017 declaring her resignation as a Member of the House of Representatives in the 17th Congress. He added that she had formally tendered her resignation in a letter dated October 4, 2017, and that Speaker Pantaleon D. Alvarez regrettably accepted said resignation on October 23, 2017.

On Majority Leader Fariñas' successive motions, there being no objection, the Chair directed the Secretary General to drop the name of Representative Turabin-Hataman from the Roll of Members and to duly inform the Commission on Elections about the House of Representatives' acceptance of her resignation.

DESIGNATION OF REPRESENTATIVE
BELMONTE (F.) AS CARETAKER OF THE LONE DISTRICT OF BATANES

Thereafter, on motion of Majority Leader Fariñas, there being no objection, the Body designated Rep. Feliciano Belmonte Jr. to be the caretaker of the Lone District of Batanes, in view of the demise of Rep. Henedina R. Abad.

ADJOURNMENT OF SESSION

Subsequently, on motion of Majority Leader Fariñas, there being no objection, the Chair declared the session adjourned until four o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, November 21, 2017.

It was 7:29 p.m.

I hereby certify to the correctness of the foregoing.
