With 209 affirmative votes, no negative votes, and no abstentions, the Body approved on Third Reading House Bill No. 6570.

MANIFESTATION OF REPRESENTATIVE VILLARIN

At this point, Rep. Tom S. Villarin manifested his intent to rise on a parliamentary inquiry.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE MERCADO

Representative Mercado asked Representative Villarin to allow him as acting Majority Leader to first finish the pending business on the floor.

TRANSMITTAL TO THE SENATE OF HOUSE BILLS APPROVED ON THIRD READING

On motion of Representative Mercado, there being no objection, the Chair directed the Secretary General to immediately transmit to the Senate, copies of the House Bills that had been approved on Third Reading.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF GUESTS

At this point, Representative Mercado acknowledged the presence in the Session Hall of the guests of Rep. Rosanna “Ria” Vergara.

THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

The day being a Monday, on motion of Representative Mercado, there being no objection, the Chair declared the Privilege Hour, and thereafter recognized Rep. Arnolfo “Arnie” A. Teves Jr. to deliver his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE TEVES

Representative Teves took the floor to express support for the President’s war on drugs, and to speak in particular in behalf of the local government units’ (LGUs) fund allotment for the Outpatient Community-Based Rehabilitation Program. He related that said allocation for Bayawan City, Negros Oriental has not yet been released, and surmised that other LGUs have not also received their respective shares. He thereafter expressed hope that the government agency concerned would provide the money, regardless of the amount, for the purpose.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE TEVES’ PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Mercado, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Teves’ privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE ARAGONES

Recognized by the Chair on motion of Representative Mercado, Rep. Sol Aragonés, on behalf of Filipino children whom she said deserve all the rights and privileges of the country’s citizens, first referred to Republic Act (R.A.) No. 10661 declaring the month of November of every year as “National Children’s Month” to commemorate the adoption of the Convention on the Rights of the Child by the United Nations (UN) General Assembly in 1989.

She then discussed the right of the child to be registered immediately after birth as provided for in Article VII of the aforementioned Convention as she stressed the need for government to ensure that all of its citizens are registered because the essential information needed under the proposed Filipino Identification System would come from birth certificates. To ensure that birth registration will be available and accessible, she proposed the following: free reconstruction of birth certificates; digitization of records; strengthening of the barangay civil registration system; allocation of budgets for the capacity-building of LGU officials in strengthening the civil service mechanism.

She subsequently expressed optimism about solving the problem of late birth registration as she cited the forthcoming deliberation by the Committee on Population and Family Relations, of which she is Chairperson, on proposed measures about civil service registration and vital statistics.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE ARAGONES’ PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Thereupon, on successive motions of Rep. Oscar “Richard” S. Garin Jr., there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Aragonés to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action, and thereafter, the Chair recognized Representative Vergara for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE VERGARA

Representative Vergara cited R.A. No. 7160 or the Local Government Code of 1991 which provides for the collection of taxes on quarrying and for the division thereof among the host province, cities or municipalities, and barangays concerned. She lamented the fact that in her province of Nueva Ecija, the provincial government was violating the aforementioned law by collecting taxes from quarrying activities in the City of Cabanatuan, letting private persons do the collections, misdeclaring the collections, giving the city the wrong share in the collections, and abusing the issuance of quarrying permits.

Then citing facts and figures, Representative Vergara asked why the revenues collected from quarrying activities in Nueva Ecija were unusually low compared to those of its neighboring province of Pampanga even if it had a larger area and more quarry sites than the latter. In particular, she questioned the low revenue share of the City of Cabanatuan where 17 quarry sites were located. She concluded that the provincial government has been wrongly declaring or understating quarrying revenues since 2008.

She subsequently cited bills filed in past Congresses proposing to transfer the power of the provincial government over quarrying activities to the municipalities and cities concerned, but which did not come to fruition. She informed the Body that she filed a resolution for an investigation of the provincial government's declared and reported quarry revenues and its allotment of shares therefrom to the cities, municipalities, and barangays where quarry sites are located. Adverting to President Rodrigo Roa Duterte's promise to stop corruption in government, she emphasized the duty of Congress to shine the light on illegal activities and uphold public trust.

Thereafter, on motion of Representative Garin (R.), the Chair recognized Representative Teves for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE TEVES

Initially sharing that there were illegal quarrying activities in his province, Representative Teves suggested that the regulatory power to issue quarrying licenses and permits should be given to cities and municipalities and not the provincial government. Both he and Representative Vergara agreed to file a House Resolution in order to investigate all the provinces involved in illegal quarrying activities especially Nueva Ecija and Negros Oriental.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE VERGARA'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Vergara and the interpellation thereon to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

Thereafter, upon Representative Garin's motion, the Chair recognized Rep. Carlos Isagani T. Zarate to deliver his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE ZARATE

At the outset, Representative Zarate recalled the heroism and bravery of revolutionary leader Andres Bonifacio, whose 154th birth anniversary will be celebrated on November 30, 2017.

He subsequently asked whether the Philippines has stopped fighting against colonialism and has allowed itself to be dominated by and be totally dependent on foreign countries. He adverted to the recent Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) summit in the country which he said has only served the interests of a few powerful countries. He pointed out that while said organization was aimed at preserving peace and cooperation among member-countries, it did not alleviate the state of poor economies. He then discussed how its member-countries were fighting such problems as nuclear terrorism, stateless refugees, and international disputes.

Representative Zarate then asked support for regionalism that will work for the Philippine interest, genuine solidarity, and cooperation for national progress as well as fight neocolonialism, foreign domination, and imperialism. He expressed optimism for a country with an independent foreign policy based on respect and mutual interest and urged his countrymen to be like Bonifacio who fought against foreign oppression and colonialism.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE ZARATE'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Zarate to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

Thereupon, on motion of Representative Garin, the Chair next recognized Rep. Emmi A. De Jesus for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE DE JESUS

Representative De Jesus initially adverted to the celebration of the "International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women" on November 25 of every year.

She mentioned the martyrdom of the Mirabal sisters from the Dominican Republic who fought President Rafael Trujillo, the alleged 30-year dictator of that country; as well as the heroism of Filipino women throughout Philippine history including the martial law regime of former President Ferdinand E. Marcos, in order to bring about real change in society.

She then lamented the fact that Filipino women still face the challenge to free themselves from violence and to change their socioeconomic condition that makes them vulnerable and available for abuse. She mentioned increasing statistics on rape and prostitution which she considered as proof that despite the government's policy on the use of force, the abuse and violence of women will continue as long as the feudal-patriarchal culture and way of thinking remains. She also condemned the use of violence of the Philippine National Police to address cases of rape/slay such as it did in its war against drugs.

Thereafter, Representative De Jesus emphasized that the government should focus on developing a comprehensive strategy to address violence against women which includes basic social services; decent employment; genuine agrarian reform; and national industrialization.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE DE JESUS' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative De Jesus to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

Likewise, on his further motion, the Chair recognized Rep. Tom S. Villarín to deliver his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE VILLARIN

Representative Villarín decried (1) the unjust and illegal imprisonment of Member of Parliament (MP) Kem Sokha, the political opposition leader of the Cambodian Parliament and President of the National Rescue Party (NRP), based on trumped-up charges, and (2) the dissolution of the NRP by virtue of a law passed by the country's legislature and as upheld by its Supreme Court, both of which are allegedly ruled by Cambodian Prime Minister Hun Sen. He pointed out that the latter's regime is practically unchecked, unopposed, and unchallenged; and added that organizations of human rights defenders led by the Cambodian Center for Human Rights were recently being closed down and other members of the Opposition were on the run because of the threat of arrest by the Prime Minister and his regime.

Reminding his colleagues of the essence of democracy and value of dissent, Representative Villarín then said that legislators in the Philippine Congress should not be prevented from participating in matters of national import such as impeachment proceedings because they represent the citizens of the country. He also urged his colleagues to express their solidarity with the Cambodian people in their fight for democracy.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE VILLARIN'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Villarín's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

On further motion of Representative Garin (R.), the Chair recognized Rep. Antonio L. Tinio for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE TINIO

Speaking in Filipino, Representative Tinio took the floor to point out that despite President Duterte's promise of change, his Philippine Development Plan (PDP) for 2017-2022 had the following fundamental defects: (1) it does not want to correct the serious inequality of property and income and has no plan to rectify the massive landlessness of the majority and monopoly of land; (2) it refuses to establish policies towards national industrialization which will create employment and raise wages and profits; and (3) it encourages the privatization of basic social services and public utilities for the sake of profit and deprives the citizens of essential services and public utilities.

He underscored that under the PDP, privatization in the education; health; housing; water; electricity; and transportation sectors will further worsen. He stated that prior to the release of the PDP, the Duterte Administration gradually exposed itself as an advocate of inequality, globalization, and helplessness rather than national industrialization. He concluded that President Duterte is not an activist or socialist President and that he needed to correct his policies and legislative agenda which are pushed by market forces and neoliberalism.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE TINIO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Tinio's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

Thereafter, on motion of Representative Garin (R.), the Chair recognized Rep. Ariel "Ka Ayik" B. Casilao for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE CASILAO

Delivering his speech in Filipino, Representative Casilao initially cited the extra-judicial killing of Mr. Apolonio Maranan, a coordinator of the Anakpawis Party-List in Davao del Sur, allegedly by members of the Philippine Army and opined that it was meant to sow fear among the people in order to silence them. He then said that the termination of peace talks between the Philippine Government and the National Democratic Front of the Philippines (NDFP) through Presidential Proclamation No. 360, was a go-signal for President Duterte to deploy additional military forces in Mindanao to hunt down members of the New People's Army.

As he noted the President's intense military offensive also against lumads, Representative Casilao opined that the aforesaid proclamation violates the agreement forged with the NDFP on the protection of the rights of its members and on the right of the farmers to land ownership. He subsequently opined that war and military solutions will not resolve the issues of the farmers as what had happened in previous administrations; and called for peace and an end to armed conflict.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE CASILAO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Casilao's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

On further motion of Representative Garin, the Chair recognized Rep. Arlene D. Brosas to deliver her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE BROSAS

Likewise speaking in Filipino, Representative Brosas focused on the President's infrastructure program of Build, Build, Build (BBB) which will involve a huge amount of money out of the 2018 national budget; and its effect on poor communities that will be demolished and dislocated in the implementation thereof. She expressed concern about the following implications of the BBB: the housing backlog for the marginalized sector will increase; the budget of the National Housing Authority will be cut; and the rights of informal settlers, especially from the women sector, will be violated when their communities are declared as danger zones in order to justify their demolition.

On behalf of the sectors involved, Representative Brosas thereafter asked the government to provide social justice and lasting peace as well as ensure the ordinary people's right to clean and potable water, food on the table, safe homes, and health and educational services.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE BROSAS' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Brosas' privilege speech to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

TERMINATION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

Whereupon, on motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body terminated the Privilege Hour.

ADDITIONAL REFERENCE OF BUSINESS

On motion of Representative Garin (R.), there being no objection, the Body proceeded to the Additional Reference of Business.
