THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

The day being a Monday, on motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Chair declared a Privilege Hour and thereafter, recognized Rep. Sarah Jane I. Elago for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. ELAGO

Rep. Elago condemned the attack, killing, and harassment committed by the military and police force against activists, leaders of democratic and progressive organizations including the Kabataan Party-List, and lumads since the government’s declaration of an all-out war on insurgency called “Oplan Kapayapaan.” She described the victims and circumstances of said incidents and stressed that these, as well as the move to reinstate the mandatory Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (ROTC) training, showed how President Rodrigo Roa Duterte’s all-out war caused more harm and discord rather than peace and development and led to heightened militarization and increase in human rights abuses among legal organizations not covered by the armed insurgency.

Rep. Elago then called on President Duterte to immediately rein in his State forces and terminate “Oplan Kapayapaan”; and to resume the peace talks and follow through on its significant advances especially the agenda on socio-economic reforms which is pivotal in addressing the roots of armed conflict in the country. She pointed out that the Filipino youth did not want to inherit the current problems of the nation but instead hoped to address them immediately. She then called on the people and the youth to launch mass actions against state fascism during the National Day of Action for Free Education, Human Rights, and Peace scheduled on February 23.

REFERRAL OF REP. ELAGO’S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Thereupon, on motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Rep. Elago to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Mark O. Go for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. GO (M.)

Rep. Go told his colleagues that public service means to serve God and the people; and that the mandate of their office is to serve. He stressed that as leaders, they should initiate a cultural revolution of taking pride in the country and rekindling love and understanding for it. Addressing his fellowmen, he called for obedience to law; passion in work; and volunteerism; and stressed that the fate and custody of the Philippines lay in their hands.

REFERRAL OF REP. GO'S (M.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Body referred Rep. Go's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

On further motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Carlos Isagani T. Zarate for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. ZARATE

Rep. Zarate first condemned past and ongoing incidents of illegal arrest, violence, political killing, and militarization in Luzon and Mindanao that involved development workers, laborers, small-scale miners, farmers, and lumads ever since the cancellation of peace talks between the Government of the Republic of the Philippines (GRP) and the National Democratic Front of the Philippines (NDFP). He particularly asked for justice especially for the casualties whose names he enumerated.

Speaking in Filipino, he next stressed the need to end the all-out war declared by the Department of National Defense (DND). He said that it was similar to those declared by previous administrations that resulted not in destroying rebels but in killing civilians, violating human rights, and persecuting people due to politics.

Subsequently, he asked for the resumption of the peace talks. He said that the Duterte Administration had a greater chance of resolving the conflict if it did so; and that the Communist Party of the Philippines (CCP)–New People's Army (NPA)–NDFP was ready to talk about a bilateral ceasefire agreement once political prisoners and prisoners of war were released.

On motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair then recognized Rep. Rodante D. Marcoleta to interpellate Rep. Zarate.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. MARCOLETA

Both Members agreed that the peace talks should resume because civilians and soldiers were being killed as a result of the aforementioned "all-out-war." They then analyzed the factors and reasons behind the withdrawal from the unilateral ceasefire first by the CPP-

NPA–NDFP and then by the GRP. Rep. Marcoleta stressed that the national interest was primordial and asked for patience and prudence on the part of the CPP–NPA–NDFP. Rep. Zarate said the latter was ready to go back to the negotiating table and acknowledged the substantive agenda on socioeconomic reforms that had already been tackled with the GRP.

REFERRAL OF REP. ZARATE'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Rep. Zarate and interpellation thereon to the Committee on Rules.

Thereafter, on further motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Ron P. Salo for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. SALO

Rep. Salo described several of many incidents of human rights violations suffered both by documented and undocumented Filipino migrants in Sabah which involved harassment, beating, killing, sexual abuse, and deportation. Focusing on undocumented Filipinos, he stressed that the concerned government agencies should provide a coherent policy and undertake definite action to halt and address such abuses despite a repatriation cum medical-educational assistance agreement between President Duterte and Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak. He said that because the Philippines is a signatory to the United Nations Convention on the Protection of All Rights of Migrant Workers and their Families, the government should ensure that Filipinos workers should not be maltreated but should be protected.

Rep. Salo said that he would file a resolution seeking to conduct an inquiry in aid of legislation on the matter as well as on a review of the country's foreign relations policy with Malaysia on the Sabah issue. He appealed to the Members for their collective wisdom and support for the sake of their suffering fellowmen and their families.

On motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Aniceto "John" D. Bertiz III for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. BERTIZ

To Rep. Bertiz' queries, Rep. Salo said that Congress should investigate the action taken by concerned government agencies on the deportation of Filipinos in Sabah, including the Office of the Undersecretary for Migrant Workers Affairs, National Commission of Muslim Filipinos, Autonomous Regional Government for Muslim Mindanao, and Department of Social Welfare and Development. He said that he will file a pertinent resolution thereon; while his colleague asked for the inclusion therein of a similar deportation problem faced by Filipinos in the United States and Saudi Arabia.

At this point, on motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Celso L. Lobregat for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. LOBREGAT

After informing the Body that undocumented Filipinos from Sabah ended up in Zamboanga City, Rep. Lobregat thanked Rep. Salo for bringing to their attention the deplorable conditions of Filipinos in the detention cells in Malaysia and the lack of a Philippine consulate in Sabah. They discussed how the DSWD, the Department of Labor and Employment, and Overseas Workers Welfare Administration can help in the documentation of Filipinos who wanted to work in Sabah; how the aforementioned resolution would address the humanitarian crisis in Sabah; how the education of the deportees' children was affected; and how deportees arriving in Zamboanga could be immediately processed and returned to their places of origin.

REFERRAL OF REP. SALO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Body referred Rep. Salo's privilege speech as well as the interpellations thereon to the Committee on Rules.

Subsequently, on motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Alfred D. Vargas for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. VARGAS

Rep. Vargas spoke of the recent accident in Tanay, Rizal which involved a Panda Coach tourist bus that allegedly lost its brakes and rammed into a post; and claimed the lives of 14 of its student-passengers from Bestlink College of the Philippines who were on a field trip. He pointed out that public utility vehicles should regularly check and maintain their vehicles especially when ferrying students and that a bus company's responsibility does not end with getting a franchise; and that school authorities should ensure the safety of their students and the legality of their required activities.

Rep. Vargas informed the Body that he had already asked for a report on the matter from Bestlink College. He proposed to review the franchise, license, and accident record of the aforementioned bus as well as other bus lines. Emphasizing that those who were responsible for the tragedy should be held accountable, he then sought the help of the Department of Transportation, Department of Education, Department of Justice, and National Bureau of Investigation.

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Winston "Winnie" Castelo for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. CASTELO

Reps. Castelo and Vargas discussed legislative measures to ensure the tragic event will not be repeated, the roadworthiness of public utility vehicles, and the need for stricter scrutiny of buses by the Land Transportation Franchising and Regulatory Board (LTFRB). The former emphasized the need to investigate field trips which were costly, irrelevant, and forced upon students.

On motion of Rep. Ty, the Chair recognized Rep. Leopoldo N. Bataoil for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. BATAOIL

In response to the questions of Rep. Bataoil, who said that he and his daughter were victims of an accident that almost cost them their lives, Rep. Vargas said that he will give a copy of the accident report from the Philippine National Police and Land Transportation Office. The two Members agreed that the school authorities and the bus company concerned should be invited to a congressional inquiry in connection with a resolution thereon that will be filed by Rep. Vargas.

REFERRAL OF REP. VARGAS' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Body referred Rep. Vargas' privilege speech, together with the interpellations thereon, to the Committee on Rules.

TERMINATION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

Having no other Member who wished to avail of the Privilege Hour, on motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Body terminated the Privilege Hour.

ADJOURNMENT OF SESSION

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Ty, there being no objection, the Chair declared the session adjourned until four o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, February 21, 2017.

It was 6:57 p.m.

I hereby certify to the correctness of the foregoing.
