House Bill No. 799

Introduced by HON. ROZZANO RUFINO B. BIAZON

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Numerous cases of misrepresentation of subdivision owners, developers and realtors have been made against unsuspecting buyers who have been continuously victimized. Among the cases of misrepresentations are the following:

- (1) When parcels of land are being sold even if there is still no individual title available;
- (2) When the subdivision lot is already being sold and it is still not ready for occupancy due to lack of provisions for water, light and telephone facilities, the roads are not yet cemented/asphalted or there are no proper drainages in place;
- (3) When a real estate mortgage has been constituted over a piece of property absent any knowledge of the buyer who pays the entire amount but is not issued the title over the said property;

Apart from these misrepresentations, the buyers on installment have also to deal with contracts that create the undue advantages in favor of the vendors. Examples of these unfair stipulations are the following:

- (1) That the liability for real estate taxes are immediately transferred to the buyer upon the execution of the contract;
- (2) That the contract price and interest rates shall be adjusted in any event of devaluation of Philippine currency; and
- (3) That the seller may refuse to allow the buyer to take immediate possession of the property purchased unless all installments are paid.

Although R.A. No. 6552 otherwise known as the "Realty Installment Buyer Protection Act" is in effect, such law does not explicitly address many of the problems currently being encountered by the unsuspecting buyers. This bill seeks to plug these loopholes. Hence, the immediate enactment of this measure is earnestly requested.

Sec. 13. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
