First Regular Session

House Bill No. 820

Introduced by HON. ROZZANO RUFINO B. BIAZON

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to grant civil service eligibility to contractual or co-terminus government employees who have rendered a total of five (5) years of efficient service.

Contractual and co-terminus employees of the government are part of the civil service. They are likewise employed on the basis of their qualifications or merit and fitness. However, they cannot be given permanent appointment due to lack of appropriate civil service eligibility.

In 1990, Republic Act No. 6850 was passed granting civil service eligibility to government employees appointed under provisional or temporary status who have rendered a total of seven (7) years. The law left out contractual and co-terminus government employees from the opportunity to acquire permanent status. Likewise, in 1995, barangay health workers who have rendered five years of continuous service were granted civil service eligibility through Republic Act No. 7883.

If these groups of government employees were given such privilege, the same may also be extended to other groups of similar status in accordance with the equal protection clause guaranteed by the Constitution. Furthermore, if approved, this measure will promote efficient government service considering that these employees will have the assurance of security of tenure and prevent frequent turnover of personnel. Hence, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
