HOUSE BILL NO. 4308

Introduced by: Hon. Angelina "Helen" D.L. Tan, M.D.

AN ACT
CREATING TWO (2) ADDITIONAL BRANCHES OF THE REGIONAL TRIAL COURT IN THE FOURTH JUDICIAL REGION TO BE STATIONED IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF CALAUAG, PROVINCE OF QUEZON AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE SECTION 14(E) OF BATAS PAMBANSA BLG. 129, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS "THE JUDICIARY REORGANIZATION ACT OF 1980", AS AMENDED

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Martin Luther King, Jr., a revered civil rights advocate, famously decried that "justice delayed is justice denied." The truth of Mr. King's words, unfortunately, still very much resonate to this day with the plight of many Filipinos whose cases have long languished or are still languishing in our courts.

It is not uncommon to see stacks of case files finding their way into the corridors of our courts simply because they could not keep up with the volume of cases that are brought for their disposition. Due to the sheer volume of cases in our courts, it is possible that the wheels of justice may grind to a halt.

Such is the case in the Regional Trial Court Branch in the Municipality of Calauag, Province of Quezon, which covers the municipalities of Calauag, Lopez, Tagkawayan and Guinayangan. The dense population of these localities and high incidence of crime, particularly drug cases within its jurisdiction has brought the court inventory of criminal cases from more than 400 in 2014 to more than 1,400 cases in 2016. Such situation may have been triggered by the steady increase in our population from the time when the Judiciary Reorganization Act of 1980 or Batas Pambansa 129 allotted the corresponding number of courts per judicial region based on the exigencies then existing.

With rapid development and increasing human activity in the Quezon Province, it is almost certain that the number of legal conflicts will only steadily increase in the coming years. Hence, the need to create additional courts to address the overload.

It is hoped that the passage of this bill will help realize the Constitution's mandate that gives each person "the right to a speedy disposition of their cases before all judicial, quasi-judicial, or administrative bodies" (Section 16, Article III, 1987 Philippine Constitution).

In view of the foregoing provisions, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
