EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 5035

Introduced by Hon. John Marvin "Yul Servo" C. Nieto

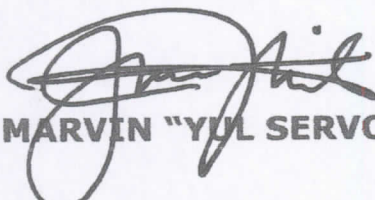

EXPLANATORY NOTE:

As a manifestation of support to this timely piece of legislation, this representation respectfully refiles this bill, which has constantly been receiving support from the past and present Congress.

Being an educator is a noble profession. For the higher education system, college professors serve as teachers, mentors, and colleagues in promoting academic excellence and quality instruction in their respective fields of expertise. Despite being respected and sometimes revered, many college professors experience injustice in the work place. Their needs are often neglected by the academic institutions they have rendered service for. They should be properly compensated for the years of passion and dedication to their profession.

This measure seeks to institutionalize a standardized system for granting the tenure to college professors. As professionals, their career path should be well structured and should foster professional development. It is high time that this representation affirm the importance of education by recognizing the value of educators in this country.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
