EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
2nd Regular Session

House Bill No. 7031

Introduced by Representatives PAOLO Z. DUTERTE, LORD ALLAN JAY Q.
VELASCO and ERIC GO YAP

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In December 10, 1987, Congress enacted into law Republic Act No. 6639 renaming the Manila International Airport as the Ninoy Aquino International Airport. The international airport since then became known as NAIA.

NAIA is the international gateway of the Philippines, being the biggest and largest international airport in the country. As such, there is a need to identify the same as belonging to the Philippines. Hence, the proposed renaming to "Paliparang Pandaigdig ng Pilipinas."

With the proposed name, the airport will easily be identified as the international doorway of the country, in view of it being in Filipino language and branding it as the international airport of the Philippines.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this landmark legislation is earnestly sought.
